At the remainder the gross trade was about equal for the two years. Chefoo takes rank as the most progressive, the gross trade for 1879 being nearly double that of 1877; the figures are Tls. 6,454,952, Tls. 9,743,389, and Tls. 11,530,566 for the three years respectively. Newchwang and Chinking, although less last year than during the previous one, both exceeded 1877; while the contrary was the case with Amoy. The gross trade of that port last year was greater than in 1878, but less than in 1877. The gross trade of all the ports when added to further dividend of two per cent. from the estate of sether makes a total of 8472 million tacks in on account of the Japan salvage fand, which is now practically closed, $12,892.01. The total of these figures, is Tls. 88,928,083, showing an increase of 14 per cent, over the previous year and of 17 per cent over 1877. The most noticeable increase was in the case of Tiontsin, which took only to the value of Tis. 7,700,000, and Hankow, which took to the value o Tls. 7.770,000 in 1878. At Tientein, although an increased trade in native imports passedaway, a decline took place from over Tls. 13,000,000 in 1877 to Tls. 11,000,000 in 1878 and to Tis. 9.000.000 in 1879. Mr. Jan de Boer reached the scene of the wrock on the 6th of last April, in his schooner the Olome, and suchored as close as possible to the stranged vessel. The weather at this time was very unfavourable, much snow falling and it being bitterly cold. Great difficulty was also experienced in obtaining labourers, and the vessel was found to be full of water and sand and in very bad position for getting affeat. With much trouble, the apparatus was at last got on board the A. E. Nordenskjöld, and pumps were set to work to get the water out of the vessel. The and was also removed so as to clear the engines: and an anchor was run out from the ship two bundred and fifty fathoms. As soon as it could to done, fires were lighted, and the engines worked astern. At this time the vessel, which raws eleven and a balf feet of water, was in less than one fathom at high tide. A stondy strain was kept on the anchor, the working of the propeller gradually loosened the sand in which the steamer was so long embedded, and in three days the A. E. At Otjusi, damages to the ship lottom were patched with can vas by means of the diving apparatus, and the vessel was thoroughly cleared of sand, whereof a great quantity still remained, and caused much trouble with the pumps. A start was made from Otjusi on the 16th of May, and Hakodate was reached the same day. fine weather being experienced. On the 22nd the steamer left Hakodate, and arrived at Yokosuka on the 24th of June. - Mr. Jan de Boer is to be congratulated on the specess which has attended his efforts, as it was very confidently asserted by some, when the accident occurred, that the A. VICTORIA. MELBOURNE, June 7th. Since the recent agitation against the Chinese, the Celestials have on several occasions been treated in an outrageous manner by European workmen following the same avocation as the Chinese. Lust sight the matter assumed a somewhat grave aspect. Until then, the opposi-tion offered was confined to the use of opprobrious epithets, supplemented occasionally by slight personal violence. Not much was said but yesterday not only gross brutality was exhibited, but the knife used, in one instance, it is feared, with fatal effect. Shortly after hall nest six o'clook, two rudians, or the mivacon largikin type, took possession of Little Bourke street, between Swanston street and Russell street. They at first contented themselves with pommelling every unfortunate Chinaman who came along, but altimately resorted to more dastardly conduct, without and provocation whatever. They set on to a Chinaman named Ah Quoy, an employe of Kong Mong, and having knecked him down, kicked him brutally in the throat. He called loudly for assistance, and a fellow work man named Ah Gee came out of the store and was instantly attacked. One of the two larriking stabbed him in the back of the neck with a large knife inflicting terrible wounds. A third Chinaman, named Ah Ho, came to their assistance and was stabled in the cheek, but not seriously. There were no police about, and the two ruffians quietly walked away unmolested. Ah Quoy and Ah Gee, both of whom were connected with Kong Mong's store, were removed there, and soon after attended to by Dr. Fullarton.
